Our History

In 1978, Wayne Greene was given six quarts of oysters from his dock boss at Mason-Dixon. He traveled all around the Tri-Cities selling oysters from the back of his Datsun Station Wagon. Those six jars sparked the idea of opening a seafood business, so he expanded from oysters to other seafood products and set up shop in his garage. In 1980, he purchased this current property, and from there, the rest is history!

During his lifetime, Wayne grew this business into a Bristol staple. He expanded from retail to wholesale in five states, and to opening restaurants in Bristol, Kingsport, and Greenville. Wayne passed away in March of 2020, but his last wish was to keep the business in the family. His eldest son, Marty, and wife Krista, moved back to Bristol to fulfill that wish. The Lord has truly blessed our business and our family. Thank you for supporting Greene's for so many years!
